

Lake Baroon Catchment Care Group

Dairy Program Report

May 9 2019

Bridge Creek

- Commenced gully crossing Ruddell Dairy
- P & K Excavations
- Pacific Plantations in the background

- Early stages of forming the crossing
- All rock used was sourced on site
- Cows choosing to use unfinished crossing

- Arley Creek
- Area to be riparian fenced

- First section of Riparian fencing
- Langdale Fencing

- The western approach to the low level crossing
- Formed crossing allowing contractors site access
- Crossing to be poured 10th May weather permitting

- Bob Philpot inspecting Daley Creek on the Gartshore property
- Over 800 meters of Daley Creek to be riparian fenced

- Matt Corks old dairy laneway under repair
- Junction of Daley Creek and Obi Obi Creek

- North Laneway which cross Daley Creek then Obi Obi Creek
- Riparian area fenced on right of picture
- Springer paddock on the left of picture

Maleny Sustainable Beef: Soil Health Workshop
Presenter: Chris Dowling Back Paddock Training
Attendances: 49 Graziers

Community Centre

- Pasture Demonstration Site “OBIVIEW”
- High traffic area on Maleny Landsborough Road.

- Field Day held 17th April
- Topics covered
- Soil testing
- Correct fertiliser choices
- Pasture assessment and species identification

Beef

- 30 Graziers from the catchment and surrounding districts attended the day.

Maleny

Yandina Conondale

Dulong

Beerwah Bellthorpe

Glen Duckworth from Ag Solutions spoke about the benefits of soil conditioners.

Graeme Elphinstone pasture consultant spoke about all things pasture.

- To protect the identity of this farmer/SEQ Water worker we have blurred this image
- Tim Odgers and Julian O'Mara meet with Keith Hopper
- Past and present projects on Walkers Creek inspected

South side of Howells Knob down to Obi Obi Creek

THE END

Gartshore Farm