

Riparian Condition Improvement, Agricultural Practice Improvement Report

13th March 2025

- Falls Creek Property
- Concrete mat crossing installation
- Phil Nash Excavation's

- Site inspection on farm at Alcorn Creek
- Mark Amos (Project Development) and Phil Nash

- 22 000 square meter landslip
- 2000 square meter soak (future well site)
- Former property road indicated by pipe

Alcorn Creek

- Hosted TAFE student visits to Eden road and Ferriday's

- East Coast TAFE is based in Nambour
- Sandstone base Falls Creek tributary

- Work experience student Josh Davies
- Surveying fall at Cork Dairy
- In preparation for Cork Dairy project plan

- Commenced off stream watering on Daley Farm

- Head waters of Daley Creek Wootha

- Phil Nash Excavations
- Luke Ferguson (Project Manager)

- 1.2 km of 40mm high pressure poly pipe
- Five Concrete water troughs
- One 22 000lt header tank

- Bunya Dieback Workshop
- Spencer Shaw Brush Turkey
- Denis Roe Avocado consultant
- 25 Attendees (4 Seqwater rangers)

- The bigger picture
- OSW project

Obi Obi Creek

- Solar Pump Installation
- Cooloolah Pumps Gympie

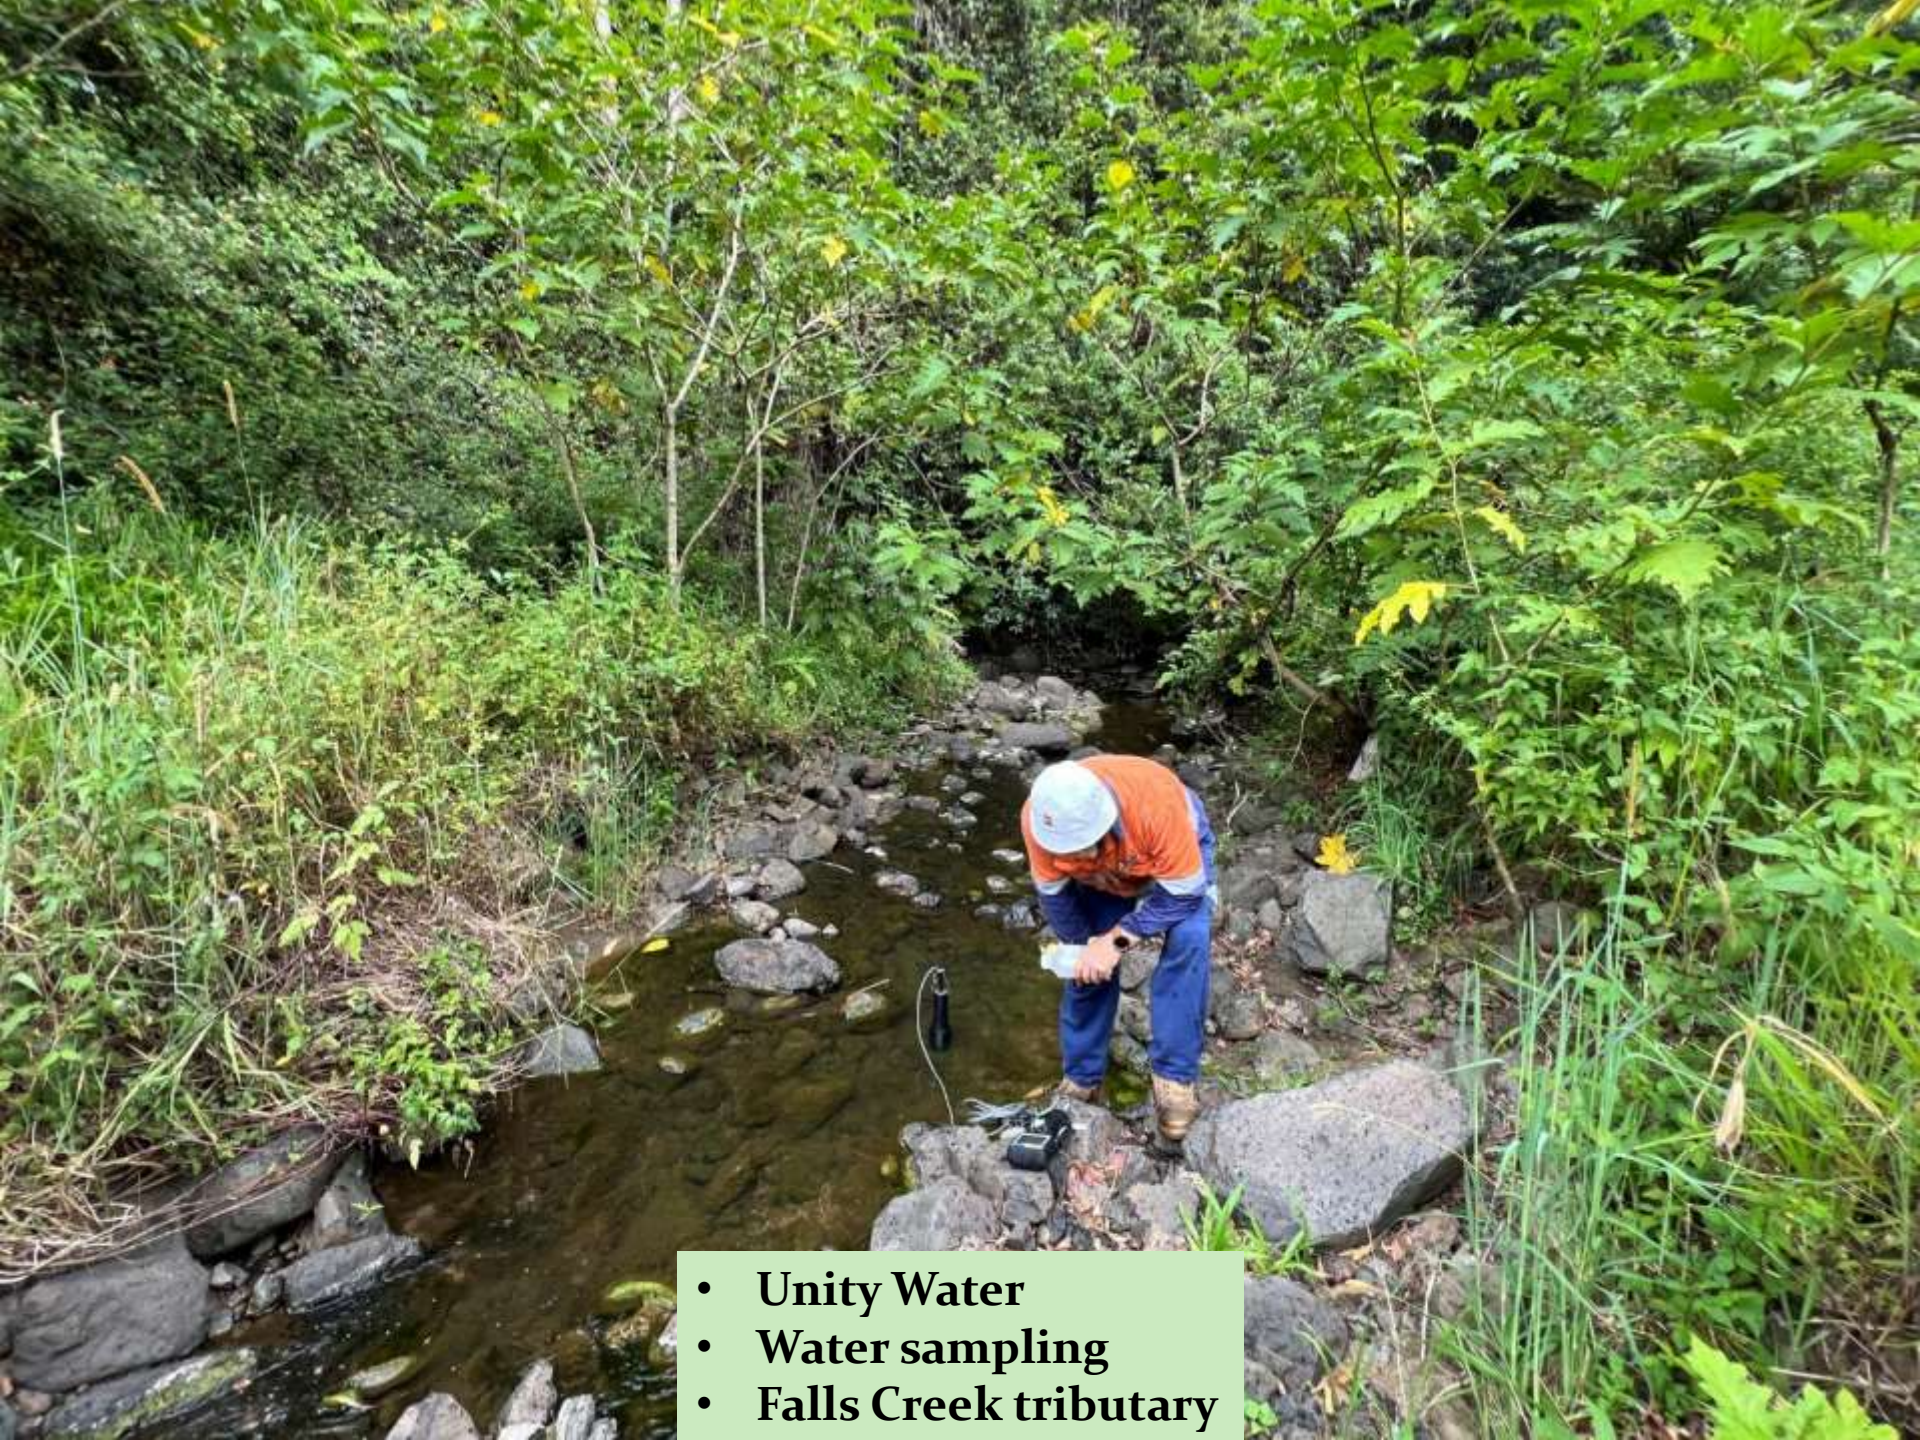

Old and the New

Project handover

- Unity Water
- Water sampling
- Falls Creek tributary

Samples collected over the catchment

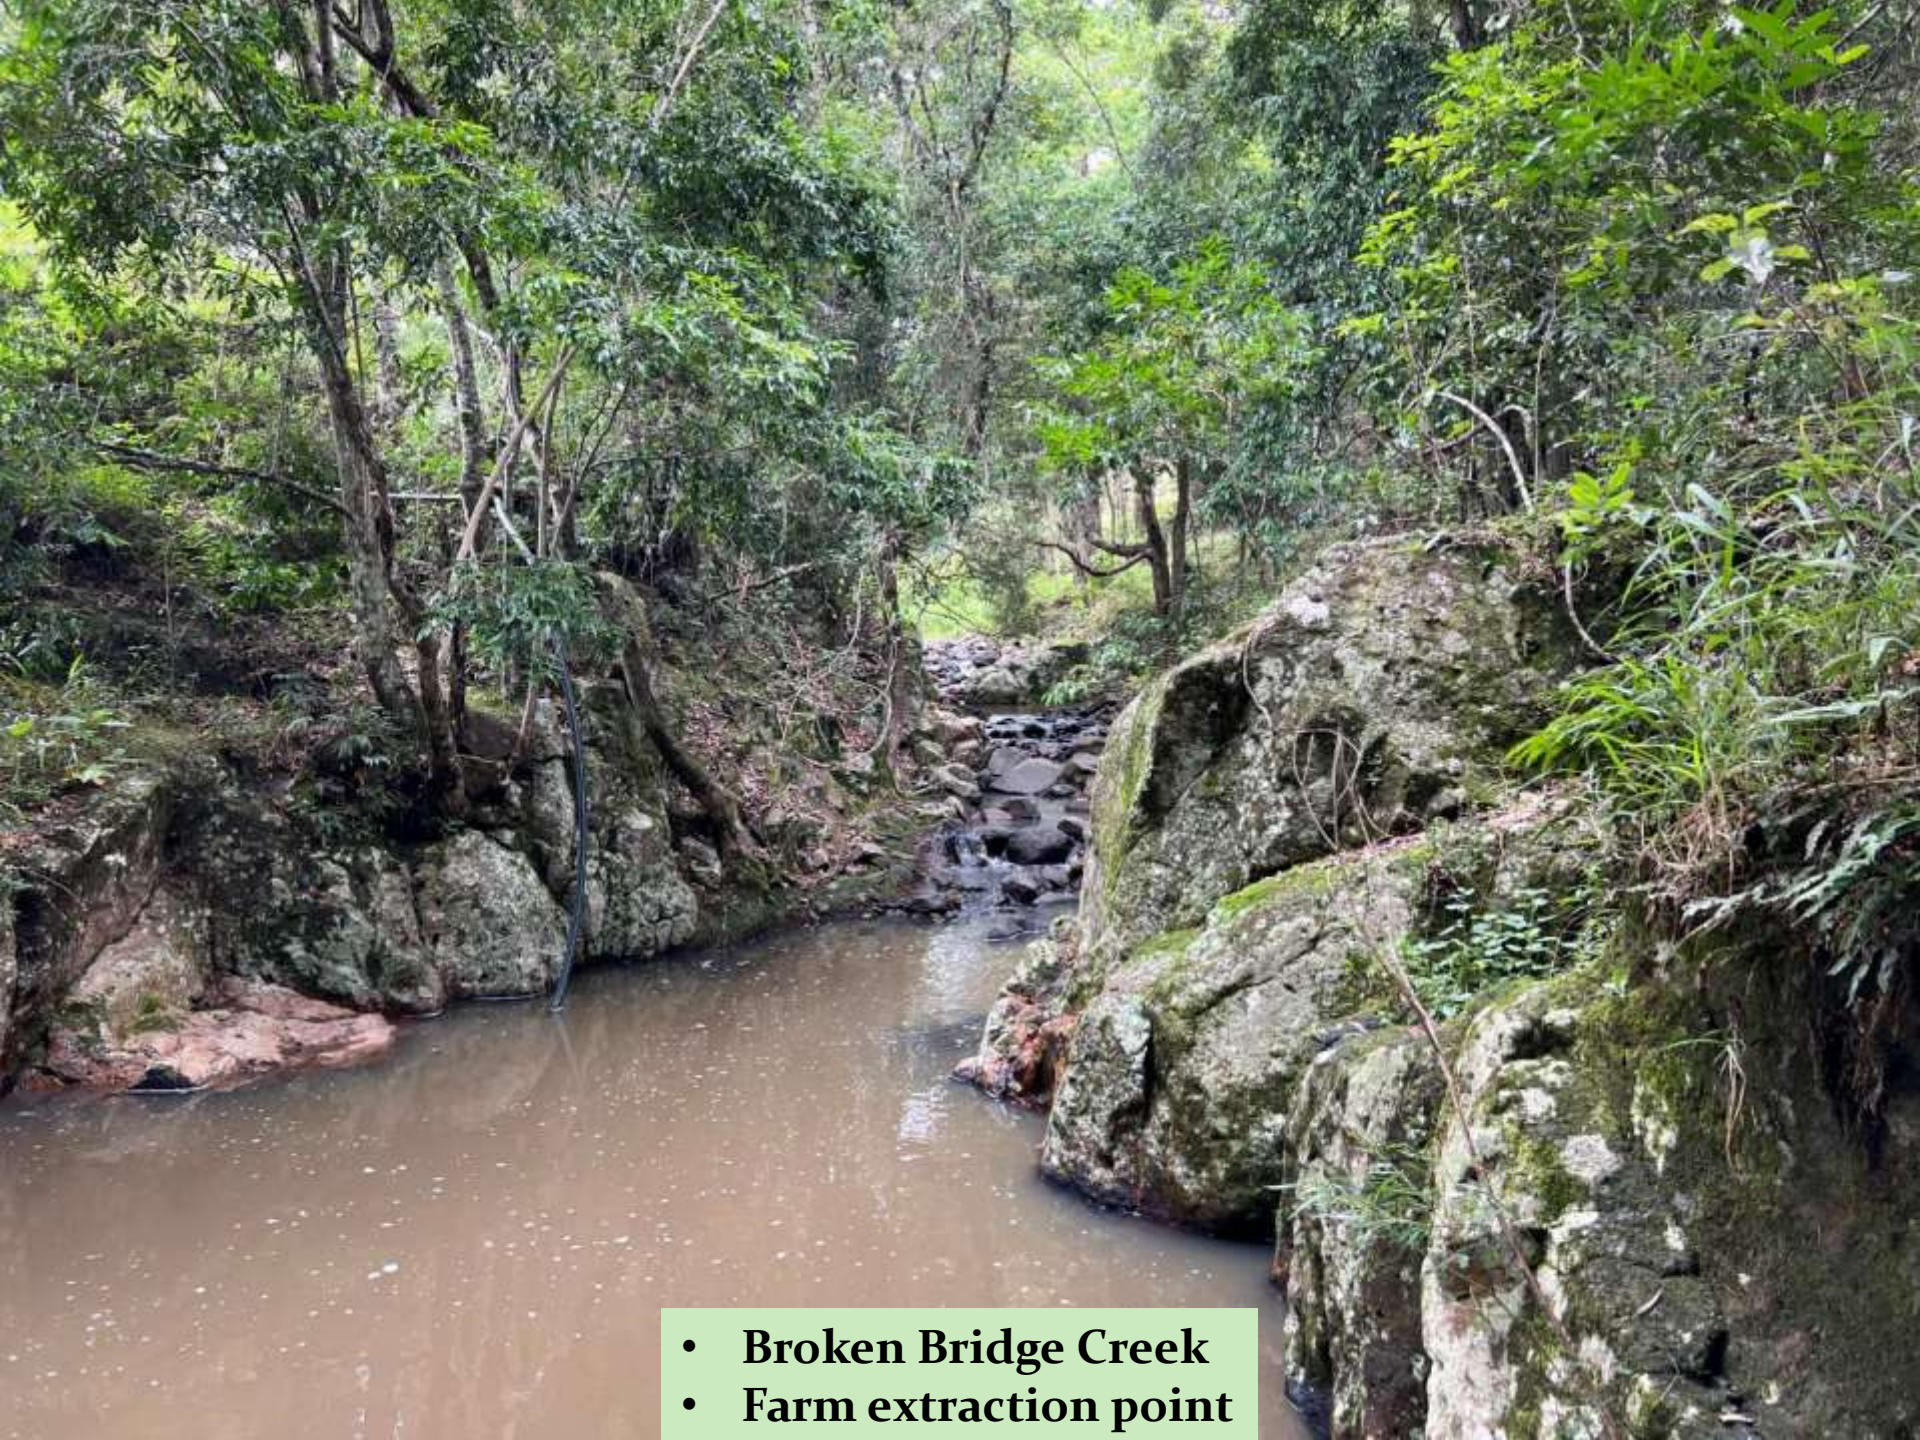

- One of the sample sites on Obi Obi Creek
- Grazing livestock the core farming practice

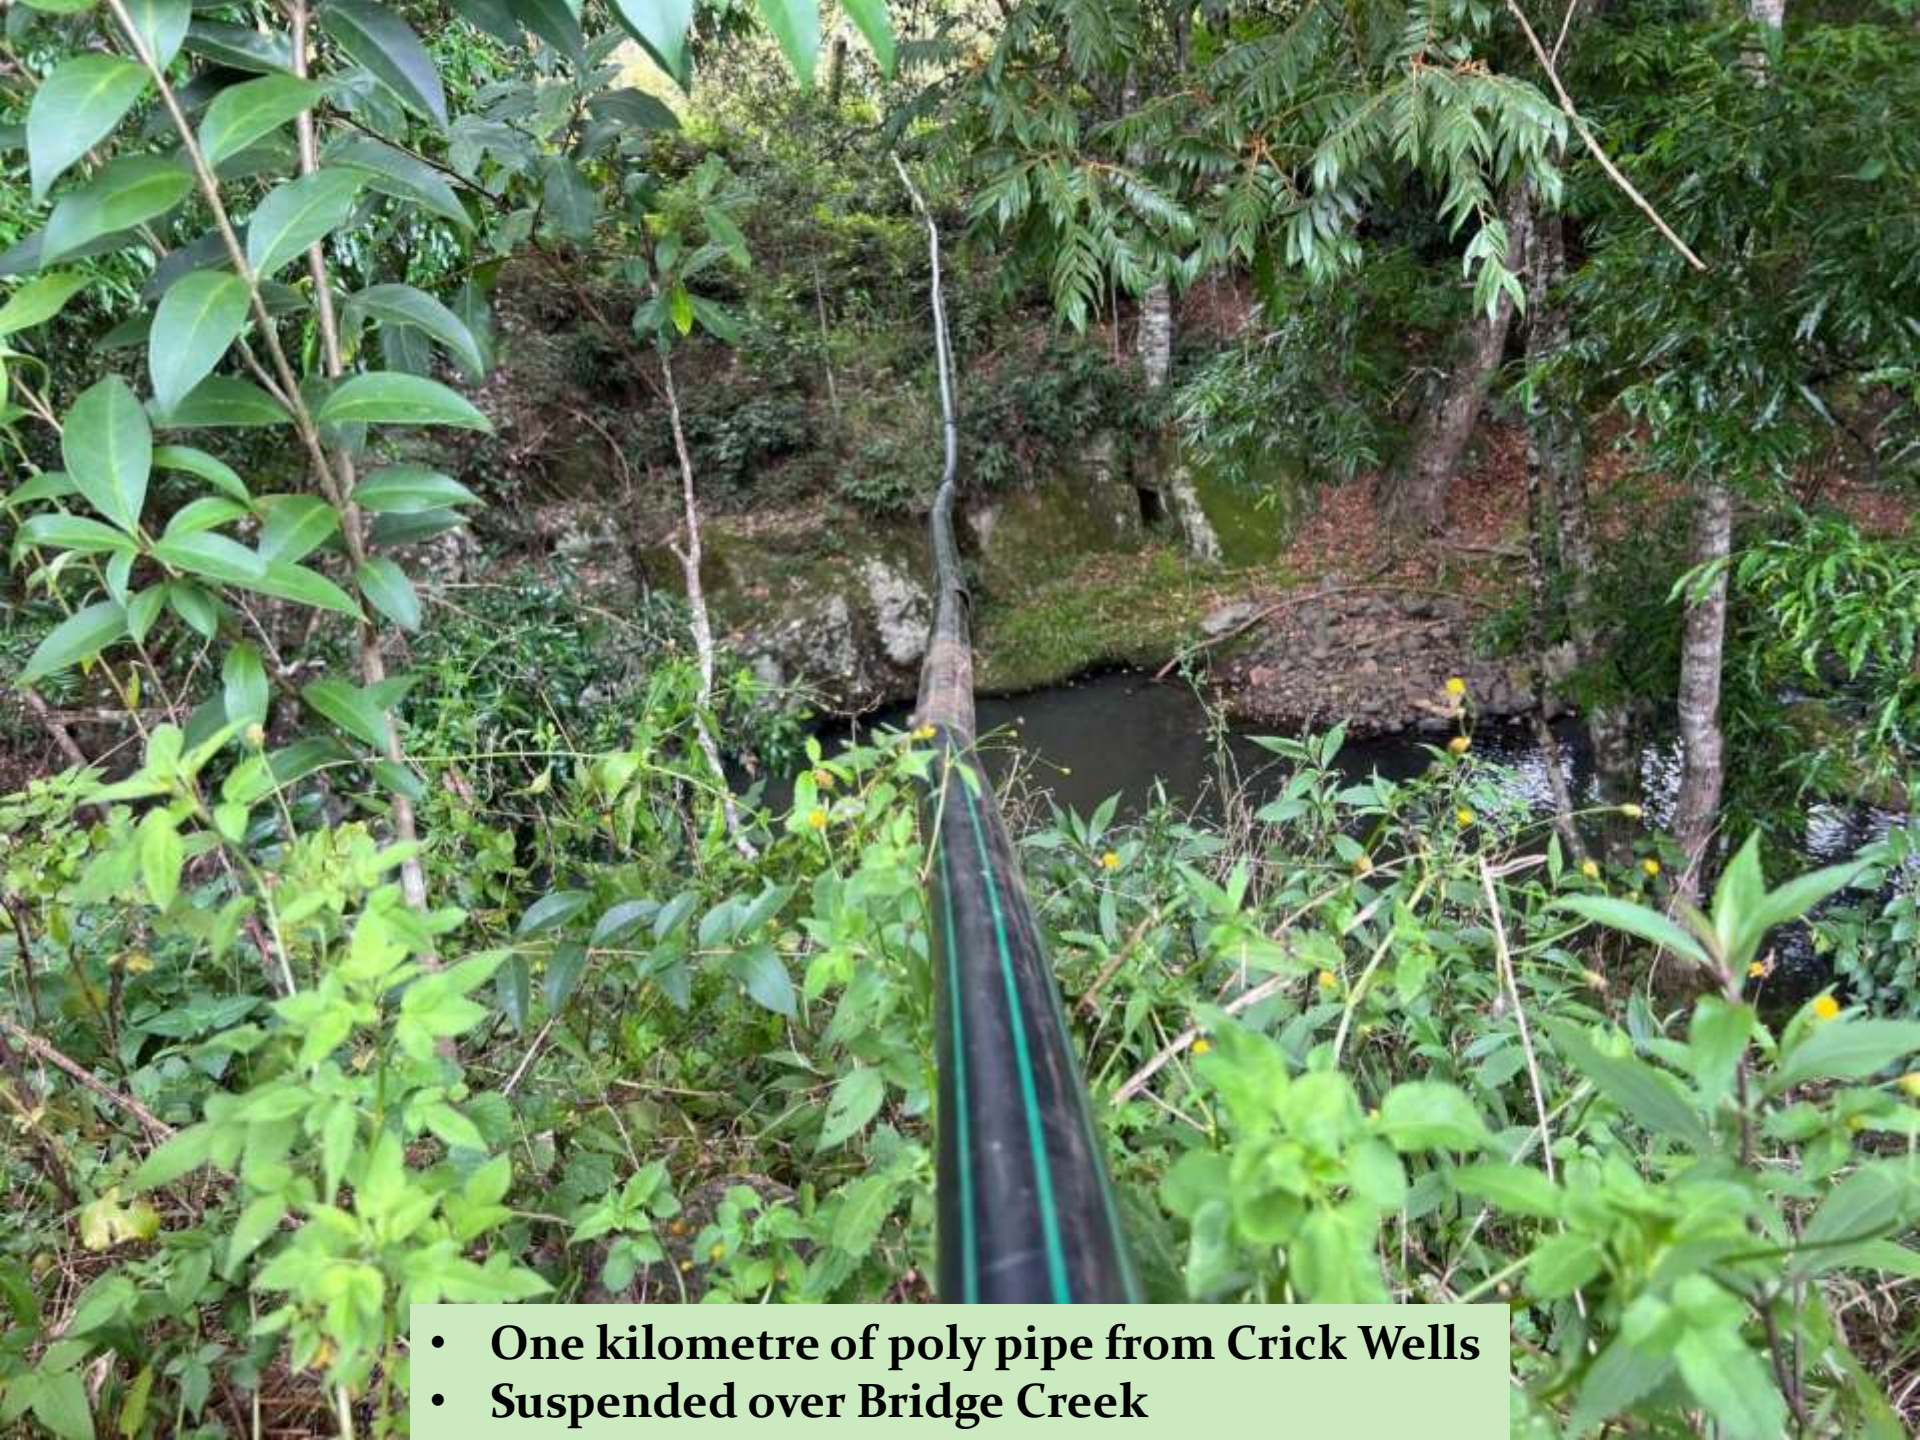

- Cameron Burton Barung Nursery
- Garry Martin's remnant scrub
- Mapping Carronia Vine sites
- Food source of the Pink Underwing Moth

- Daley Farm remnant scrub top of the catchment
- Carronia Vine identified this time of year by the fruit

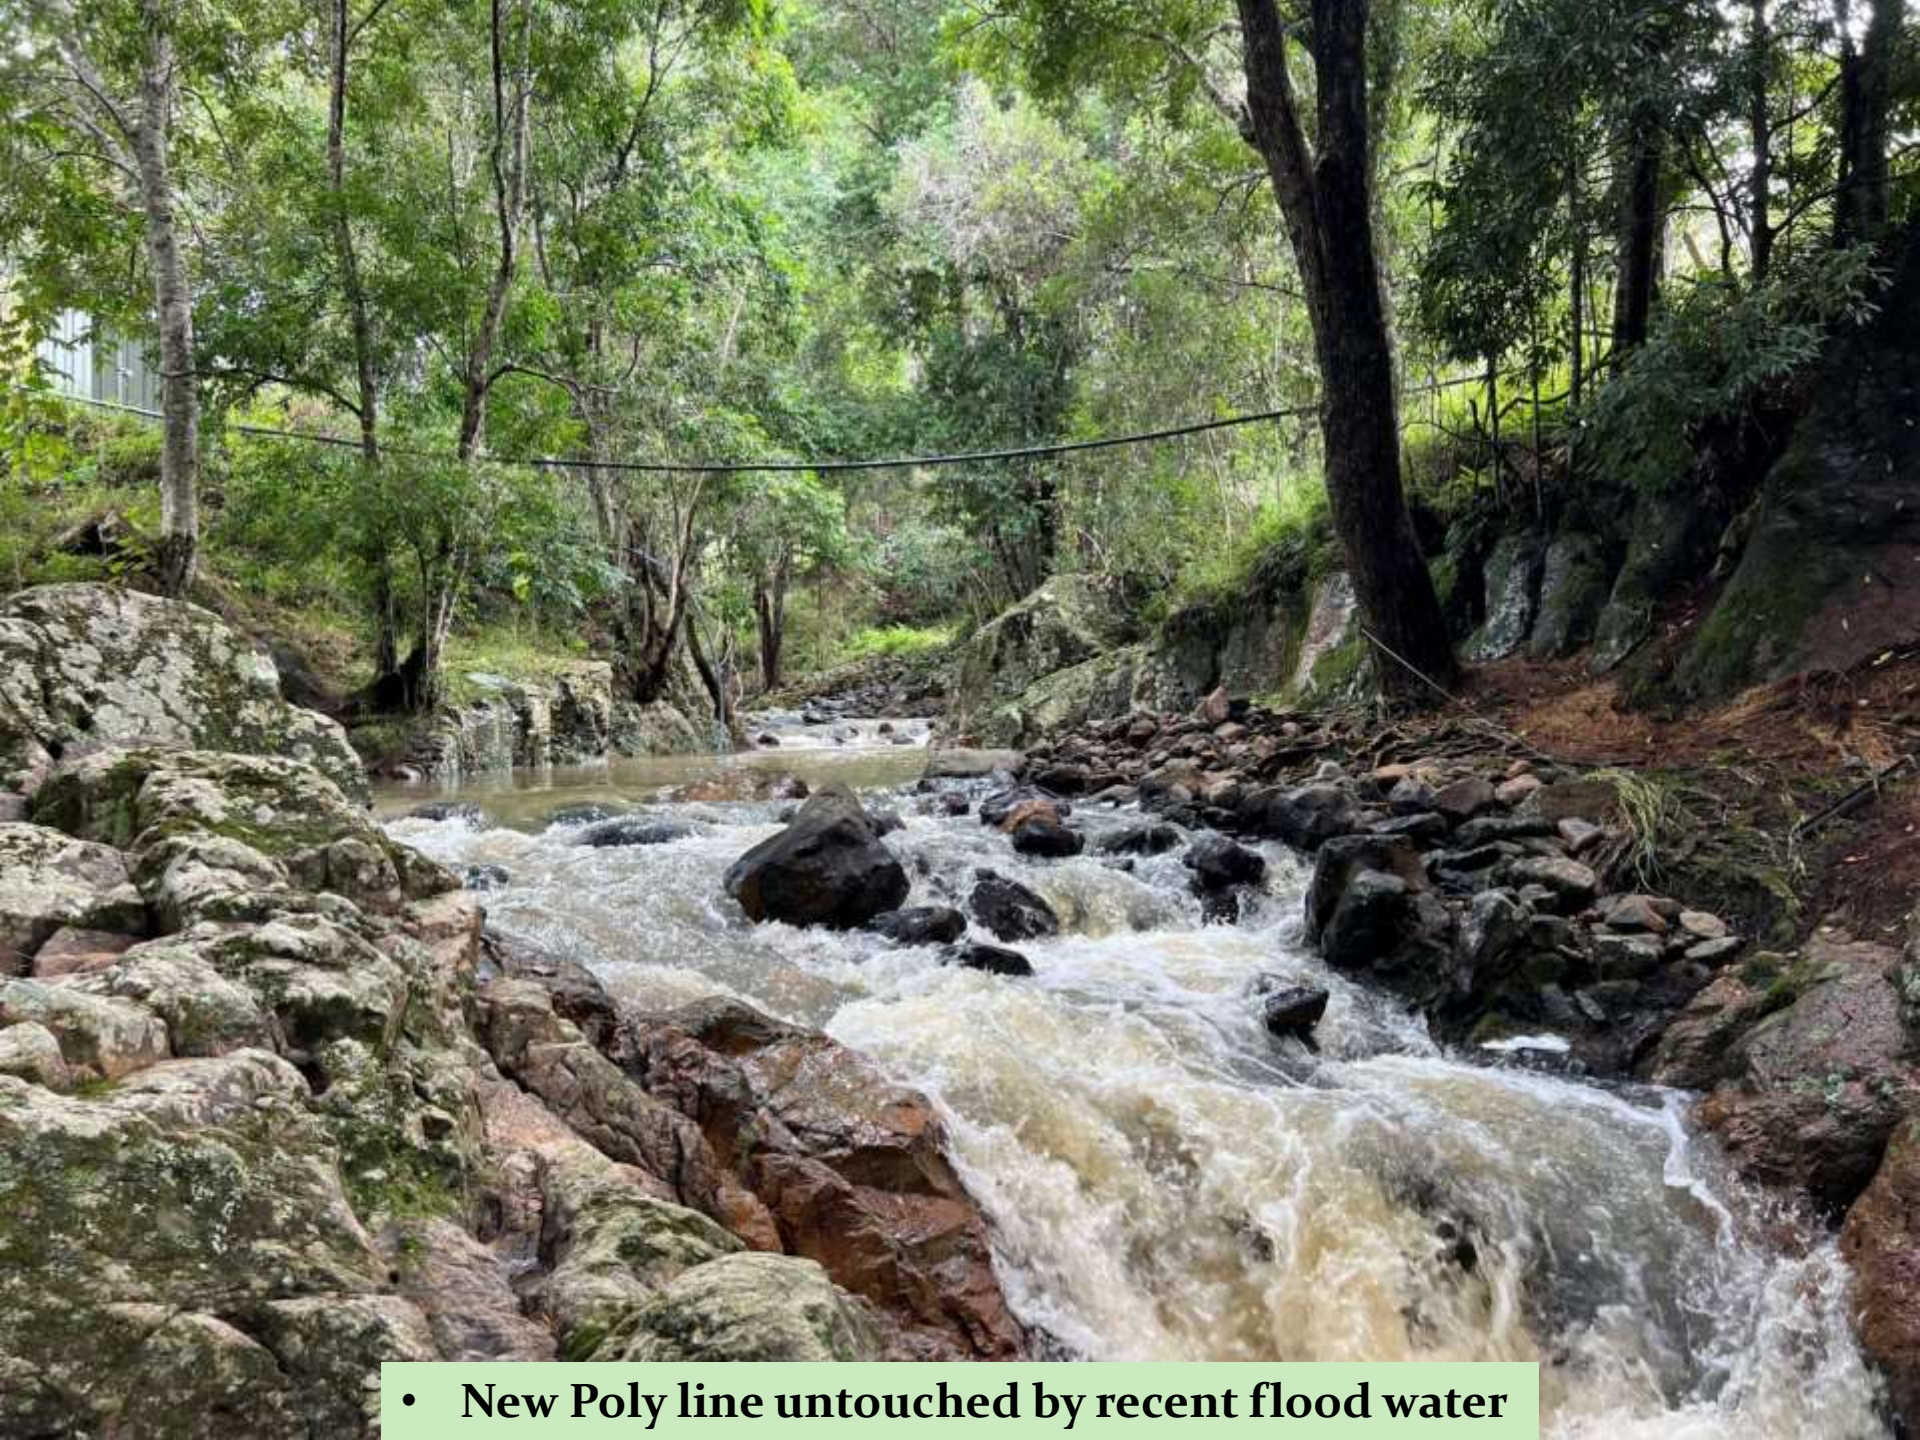

- Broken Bridge Creek
- Farm extraction point

- One kilometre of poly pipe from Crick Wells
- Suspended over Bridge Creek

- Bypassing the exaction hole and supplementing the OSW
- Poly line encased in 50mm rural poly with a 5mm S/S cable

- New Poly line untouched by recent flood water

Hedge vs Reveg

Falls Creek delta Lake Baroon