

POSITION VACANT - PROJECT MANAGER

Lake Baroon Catchment Care Group (LBCCG) is a small, dynamic not-for-profit community group based in the Maleny district of the Sunshine Coast hinterland, working with the local community, particularly primary producers and large landholders, to reduce risks to catchment water quality and deliver best-practice land management and conservation outcomes. We are well-funded until at least 2031, with a long-serving and supportive committee and staff, and a friendly and flexible working environment.

We seek an experienced person to manage the delivery of on-ground projects improving agricultural practices and riparian habitats and controlling erosion and landslips to enhance water quality in the catchment. The Project Manager will develop and implement project plans on time and within budget to achieve agreed outputs, manage external contractors to install and maintain on-ground assets, and monitor and report on projects.

The successful candidate must have:

- A tertiary qualification in natural resource management, agricultural science or related field and at least three years relevant experience; OR at least five years relevant technical experience in natural resource management or primary production (experience is highly regarded)
- Demonstrated experience working with primary producers and an understanding of sub-tropical agriculture/animal production
- The ability to apply a process-based approach to develop and implement on-ground projects (prioritisation of tasks and ability to multi-task)
- The ability to build strong partnerships and collaborate with stakeholders (particularly rural landholders) and the community
- Excellent time management skills
- Strong oral and written communication skills
- High-level problem-solving skills
- Proficiency in Microsoft Office Suite including Word, Excel and PowerPoint
- Practical proficiency in ArcGIS Pro or other GIS-based mapping software
- Experience in piloting aerial drones (highly regarded but not essential).

Total remuneration package: $100,000 - $110,000; permanent, full-time including superannuation.
Flexible work arrangements negotiable. LBCCG is an equal opportunity employer.

Applications close 20 November 2026
